- Jessica Crowe, president announced that she accepted a director's position at a public library in Alabama. Her last day at CCC will be July 31. Retha Hall voted in as president. No appointees for vice-president.
- Discussed faculty outreach: CCC meets faculty, gets lots of cooperation; others reported having some challenges in getting faculty support, but find ways to meet with them about instruction, resources and services.
- Facebook discussion: it's an advertising tool, students are using Instagram which needs permission for photos. Most colleges have restrictions on using.
- CCC has it all connected, I, F, T (Twitter being the new blog)
- CCC tried month themes for students & it was well attended, but no books checked out; relationship were forged; students did come back; food was used
- CCC-Idea Studio has been a hit; includes PC's, Smart Board, document camera, multi-purpose (green room) room and faculty support. Attendees toured library and studio.
- SPCC uses Go Pro and lends it out (cost approx. $350)

Discussed databases:

Credo-some schools use it, others have stopped

In Context-is used and really liked

Opposing Viewpoints-many like and use it; good teaching tool

Discussed OER (Open Education Resources) which is basically to stop using textbooks which saves students money

Films on Demand-shows clips real easily, good classroom component

Safari Tech-CCC & SPCC use it a lot; but expensive

Library and Idea Studio Tour: attendees
