A Note from Our President

Greetings Fellow NCCCLA Members!

Summertime, the time when we get to relax, maybe go on vacation and unwind. Wait, who am I kidding? It's SUMMER! Time to get the big projects done - inventory, weeding, moving furniture and maybe preparing those new book orders and reviewing the subscription contracts.

Summer for NCCCLA is often a time for planning. Britney Shawley is scouting out locations for our 2019 Conference. Are you interested in hosting? Then please drop her a note at: blshawley@johnstoncc.edu. As always, we are reading the survey comments you submitted to help plan the next conference. The first challenge is the date! One thing I discovered last year is that the NC Community Colleges do not have similar Spring Breaks. Often, we use the spring break week of the hosting college. The Conference Planning Committee will be in full swing before we know it.

NCCCLA President 2018 – 2019

Be on the lookout for information about your District meetings. Summer can be a great time to hold these. Bring a colleague along, they could be our next new member! Take pictures of your meetings and send them in to us nccclibraryassociation@gmail.com. We are always looking for new photos to use on our website.

There are a few NCCCLA Board appointment changes, both Jackie Kilberg and Monica Young have stepped down from their positions. Please join me in thanking them both for their service to the organization. Their time and effort have greatly impacted the service and function of this organization. As a result, I have made two new appointments as of May 1st Katy Hoffer will serve as our Communications Officer and Alisha Webb will serve as our new Awards Chairperson.

As always please let me know if you have any question! Happy Summer!! Happy pool party, enjoy the sunshine, but don't get burned!

Cheryl

A Message from Our Vice President/President-Elect

It seems like the 2018 conference just ended, but my calendar says June! The time has come to begin planning the 2019 conference. It seems a lot of institutions and libraries are undergoing renovations and unable to host this year. With that said, if your institution would like to be considered as the host institution for the 2019 NCCCLA conference or you would like to serve on the planning committee, please e-mail me atblshawley@johnstoncc.edu.

New Member Highlight

Kellen Whitehurst is the new Library Public/Technical Services Specialist at Roanoke Chowan Community College and joined NCCCLA in May. He is working towards obtaining his Masters in Library Science from East Carolina University. He received his Bachelors in Psychology from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He was once a Youth Service Coordinator at the library in his hometown of Hertford. Kellen wants to use his new membership to establish a strong connection with as many of the member libraries as possible. In his free-time (if any, lol), he is a husband and father of three girls, an avid fisherman, a math tutor, a Netflix binge watcher, a Dallas Cowboys enthusiast, a donut connoisseur and a Perquimans County Pee Wee football coach (Go Buccaneers!). Welcome Kellen!
