

CANDIDATE BIOGRAPHICAL BACKGROUND

Name: Brittany N. Champion

Current Position: Instruction and Outreach Librarian

Institution: Pitt Community College

Education: Master of Library Science,
North Carolina Central University, 2018

Employment:

I have over 10 years of experience in librarianship. I currently work at Pitt Community College as an Instruction and Outreach Librarian. Prior to Pitt Community College, I worked as an Adult Services/YA Services Librarian at Wayne County Public Library.

Currently, I serve as the Vice-Chair of the Roundtable for Ethnic Minority Concerns, a section of the North Carolina Library Association; and also serve on the North Carolina Community College Library Association Equity Sub-Committee as Vice-Chair.

Officer Position: VICE PRESIDENT / PRESIDENT-ELECT

Why do you wish to serve in this position and what do you envision achieving during your term in support of NCCCLA's mission?

Diversity, inclusion, and equity aren't just trending nouns. These are action words that I actively seek to show through my work daily. Community college librarians aren't given the recognition they deserve for our contributions in the field librarianship and external communities. I desire to help transform how the library world views this realm of academic libraries. With the support of the NCCCLA community, I hope to do so through innovative programming, presentations, and webinars.

Help me make that change by voting for me to serve as NCCCLA's next Vice-President/Chair-Elect.
